GIANTS THRIVE ON THE PHILLIES TWICE

Morning Game Won by Score Brooklyn Drops to Fourth of 5 to 1; 13 to 7 in the Afternoon.

The fine playing of Bancroft and Tisch threw the Phillies back early in its clear it was too late. Frisch made a of his vivid plays, and he can make iem. He threw himself at full length and dug up a liner while his chin was cooping a groove in the dust and the ole support, save his stomach, of his ody.

The winning run. Wheat made a great attempt to make a one handed running catch of Barbare's hit but succeeded only in getting the tips of his gloved hand on the ball. In the morning game the Braves slammed four members of the Dodgers' browns and White Sox Make dy.

Earle Neale of the Phillies was badlyit ever the left eye in the morning, e charged to the right field wall for shot from Frisch, one that scored a in in the first inning. He made a iring and remarkable catch with one ind, but his daring led to his injury, r his head struck. He held the ball apite of the injury to bis head and a jarring impact. He was unable to ifth here and there a thump at a time alculated to do the most good. Two iome runs fell to the Giants' lot. One if them was delivered by no less a rejowned craftsman of the ash than Fredoney, himself, in person. That ponerous worker in wood not only pitched a game of exceeding merit but Lit a bine run into the right field stand in the third inning. Bill Hubbell, former chant, was the pitcher thus terribly

The Glants had to win those two ames to keep the pace with the Pirates, at there was to their game a punch on fignoe and supple security of defence inch told that they are going to make a sure of winning from the tail enders possible. Of the various pitchers who ppeared only Toney did pitching akin work of the best standards, standards nder this year's slambanging far less equent than formerly. What's beoming of the close, taut, low score ames, the games in which pitching skill, tratesy, vigilance and finesse were retired from first to last and there was sore science than slugging? At the rate hings are going there'll be a strong residence on in favor of the close, low zore games.

Two Home Runs.

In the afternoon the Glants made two ome runs, two triples and two doubles. Phillies made one home run and our doubles. Rugged hitting isn't often farmed into one laning the way the lants did ft in the second, when they nocked George Smith to the settee, foung and Walker made triples, Rapp single and Earl Smith a home run, wo linkings later Frank Snyder saunsed up to the sixth and hits by Walker and Smith a bone run and shook off the Phillies, who rapped ouglas into retirement after he had ald them hitless for three periods. PIRATES TAKE TWO TO HIS OLD TEAM ternoon by Senators After Winning in the Morning.

Washingron, May 30.—After winning five straight games, including the opening section of their holiday double header with the Senators to-day, the Yankees came a cropper this afternoon and suffered their only shutout of the season to date, while making only two hits off the southpaw delivery of Mogridge. The score of the morning game was 2 to 1, that of the afternoon defeat, 1 to 0, evidence enough that the pitchers dominated both engagements.

This was Mogridge's first full game against the Yankees since the latter sent him to Washington in the trade for Roth, and one of the best that he has ever pitched against any club. In the first eight innings only two hostile batters reached first base—Bodie, on a pass in the second, and Ruth on a single in the seventh, and when the pinch came in the park.

Fewster, batting for Quinn, started

Pittsburgh took two games from Chicago to-day, the morning score being 13 to 0 and the afternoon of to 3.

Zinn held the visitors safe in the morning same, while the Pirates batted the offerings of Yorke and Cheeves freely. Maranville left the hospital early to-day against the doctor's orders, and after playing for five innings and securing three hits he retired in favor of Barnhart. Carey led in the batting, with four singles and a double.

In the afternoon contest Adams yielded four hits for three runs in the first innings only two hostile batters reached first base—Bodie, on a pass in the second, only a service of the pinch came in the second, only one out and Ruth at bat, the Rochester rocket was probably the coolest man in the park.

Fewster, batting for Quinn, started

Fewster, batting for Quinn, start this hectic round with a fly to Brow. Roth, batting for Mitchell, then rolled easy grounder to O'Rourke and wasfe on the Washington shortstop's it throw. Hawks was named to run f. Roth and moved up a base on McNalls single to centre—the second hit record against the Senatorial heaver.

Brower Gets Ruth's Drive.

This brought the great Bambino to but and the Sultan of Swat leaned against the first ball pitched. It went on a line to deep right field, but Brower was there in front of it, and McNally had to hurry back to first to escape being doubled up. Pipp then tapped to the box and Mogridge easily beat him in a race to first for the final out.

Quinn pitched for the Yankees, and except in the second inning, in which the Senators scored the only run of the game, was brilliantly effective. In the second Miller led off with a triple to be ing doubled up. Pipp then tapped to the box and Mogridge easily beat him in a race to first for the final out.
